Catholic Schools

Learn, Serve, Lead, Succeed

Catholic Schools, Learn, Serve, Lead, Succeed is the theme of the 44th annual National Catholic Schools Week celebration, which begins this weekend. This week has been set aside to celebrate the SVS school community built by St. Vincent de Paul Parish to educate tomorrow's citizens and future church leaders.

This year's National Catholic Schools Week theme encompasses the core products and values that can be found in Catholic schools. Not only does St. Vincent de Paul School offer a quality academic education, we also strive to teach students to become future servant leaders and faith-filled disciples who will be citizens who enrich their communities.

This week's key themes are what set Catholic schools apart from other educational options. They are why families make sacrifices to provide their children with a Catholic education.

I am grateful every day for the teachers, staff, board members, parents, volunteers and parishioners who make St. Vincent de Paul School so successful! The efforts of all are what makes it possible for SVS to grow and provide a quality education for the youth of our parish and community. Please continue to keep the success of St. Vincent de Paul School in your prayers.

The watchword today is "immediately." Peter and Andrew, James and John all respond immediately to the call of Christ. May I be as open to God's call and as ready to use my talents in His service as those first disciples were!

Share Your Faith

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

This weekend, the collection for the Church in Latin America will be taken up at all Masses. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share the Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. Please be generous.

Email Scams Regarding Priests

Please be advised that you should not open or reply to any emails from Father Rick or Father Brian that are requesting a favor by purchasing gift cards. This is considered an email phishing scam. Often times these types of scams target those in positions of authority. Using names of bishops, clergy, and school/parish staff are common ways of trying to get people to respond. There is unfortunately little that can be done to prevent these emails from happening! So, it is important to be mindful of the emails received and not open or reply to any that seem "off the mark" or strange. As far as emails, Father Rick's email will always be stvcapepadre@gmail.com and Father Brian's email will always be fatherbrian@svparish.com.

Food for the Fathers A Ministry Opportunity

Each Tuesday Food for the Fathers, a parish ministry, will supply a warm meal for three priests. If you are interested in helping with this ministry, please sign up at <http://signup.com/login/entry/67699625678106404>. You will need to enter your email address but will NOT need to register an account on SignUp.com. If you don't like the choices listed, change your selection to include an entrée and two side dishes (no desserts, please!). Choose the date you would like to provide the meal. SignUp.com will send you an automated confirmation and reminders. Then, on the date chosen, deliver the meal between 5:00 and 6:00 p.m. to the rectory.

Low-Gluten Hosts for Holy Communion

Low-gluten Communion hosts are available at all weekend liturgies to those suffering from Celiac Sprue disease. The hosts, made by the Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration in Clyde, Missouri, contain 0.01% wheat gluten. They are accepted by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (<http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/the-mass/order-of-mass/liturgy-of-the-eucharist/celiac-disease-and-alcohol-intolerance.cfm>), and are recommended by the journal Gluten-Free Living as "perfectly safe" for sufferers of Celiac Sprue disease (Vol. 9, no. 1). The Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau has approved these low-gluten altar breads for use in the Diocese. During a weekend Mass, the minister having the consecrated low-gluten hosts will be in the center aisle on the left side. When you approach this minister, just indicate that you need one of these consecrated hosts.
