Please continue to pray for those joining the Catholic Church this year. The hope was for them to join during the Easter Vigil but because of Covid-19, their reception into the Church will take place here at St. Vincent on Saturday evening, May 30. The names and pictures of the candidates are displayed in the gathering area of church and in the DePaul Center. Please consider writing a note of congratulations and welcome and dropping it in the box in the gathering area prior to next Saturday.

• Prayer Requests •

Please remember Bernice Baldwin, the sick, the hospitalized, the homebound, and those who care for them. Pray also for those suffering from Covid-19, for all health-care workers and for those seeking a vaccine to the Coronavirus.

Jesus ascended into heaven, blessing His disciples and promising that they would soon receive the power of the Holy Spirit. We who have received that promised gift of the Spirit are now empowered to be His witnesses to the ends of the earth — to use our time and talents to spread the good news of salvation.

Act of Spiritual Communion

The “Act of Spiritual Communion” is a prayer for anyone who desires to receive the Eucharist but is unable.

“My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.”

Cancellations

Camp Re-NEW-All - After much prayer, discussion, and discernment, it is with deeply saddened hearts that the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau has made a decision to cancel Camp Re-NEW-All for the summer of 2020. It was a very difficult decision to make. However, as the diocesan leaders and camp directors reviewed the guidelines being distributed by the Center for Disease Control and other reputable sources, it was determined that Camp Re-NEW-All is not equipped or adequately staffed to make all necessary changes to comply with the recommended new safety and health protocols due to the spread of Covid-19. The leaders/directors strive to provide a safe camp experience for all and feel they are not able to do that this year. Even if camp could make the necessary changes, it would greatly change the atmosphere and experience of camp itself to have so many restrictions in place.

Some who have already cancelled have donated their registration fee to camp. However, refunds will be issued to everyone who requests one. Please contact Katie Newton at knewton@dioscg.org to request a refund.

Totus Tuus - After much consideration and prayer, it has been decided to cancel the Totus Tuus Program for this summer here at St. Vincent. Rescheduling dates and safety concerns were major points considered. Refunds will be available to those who have registered. Hopefully, Totus Tuus can be held during the summer of 2021.

DIOCESAN DEVELOPMENT FUND

The annual Diocesan Development Fund appeal will be held on June 6 - 7. This effort is conducted in every parish of the Springfield-Cape Girardeau Diocese to help finance the activities and ministries of the Catholic Church in southern Missouri.

Some of you may be suffering financially and may not be able to contribute. If you are able to contribute, please consider pledging a little extra to make up for fellow parishioners who are not able to donate. Prayerfully consider assisting the diocese in funding the many ministries it provides for St. Vincent de Paul Parish and the other 85 parishes and missions in southern Missouri. Thank You!

To learn more about the Diocesan Development Fund Campaign, please watch the DDF video on the diocesan website at www.dioscg.org or the parish website at www.svcape.org.

Welcome Back!

After two months St. Vincent de Paul is now open for the celebration of Mass. The desire to return to Mass, participate in prayer and receive the Eucharist is incredibly strong. Please know of the following points ...

Attendance will be limited. The Church building is marked for “social distancing.” Using the guidelines from the Cape County Health Department, the Church space is limited to 30% of the normal seating capacity. This means that our Church space will seat approximately 150-200 people. When a Mass is filled to its capacity, people will be encouraged to attend the next Mass. For this reason, three additional Masses have been added on the weekend, and will be celebrated in the DePaul Center Gym. It is estimated that the DePaul Center Gym will hold approximately 300 people using the “social distancing” directives.

Social Distancing will be practiced. Pews have been roped off! Families will be asked to keep six feet of separation from other families. Bring your own mask to Church and be prepared to wear the mask during Mass to guard against the spread of germs. If you are showing any symptoms of sickness, please stay home.

If you come as a family, please sit together as a family group. You should be seated at least six feet from other families. Remember, there are to be NO hugs or handshakes!

Liturgical changes will be in place. Extra precautions are being taken including the suspension of the distribution of the Precious Blood and receiving Holy Communion only on the hand. Those desiring to receive Holy Communion on the tongue should wait until the very end of the Communion procession. (If a parishioner is unable to consume a low-gluten host and is only able to consume the Precious Blood, please call the Parish Office the Friday before the weekend stating which Mass you will attend. A separate chalice will be prepared and distributed after the hosts have been distributed.)

The Sign of Peace is suspended.

Holy Communion will take place at the very end of Mass so that the movement of the people in the Church can be limited to just one time. People can receive Holy Communion and then return to their pews for private prayer or they may leave for home.

Please remember that people who wear masks will have to remove the masks when they approach the Priest/Deacon/Eucharistic Minister. Note: The Communion procession should follow six foot spacing between Communicants. People are encouraged to receive Holy Communion in their hands and should not be wearing gloves.

A general dispensation from the Sunday obligation will remain. Remember, if you feel ill, or if you do not feel comfortable with coming to Church at this time, you are invited to join in the many Masses offered online. Also remember that dispensation from attending Sunday Mass is still granted until the end of June. If you or your family feel more comfortable at home because of the Coronavirus threat, make plans to continue to keep the Sabbath holy by participating in livestream and pre-recorded Masses. Mass will be recorded on Saturday at the 5:00 p.m. Mass and it will be posted immediately to our YouTube and Parish website. The Sunday 9:00 a.m. Mass will not be livestreamed as it has been the last two months.

There still will be a risk for anyone who attends a public Mass. Even with best health practices and strict social distancing, anyone who enters a public space should recognize there is a risk of contracting the Coronavirus. Cleaning will continue but no one should expect that they will be any safer from germs than other public spaces. To prevent risks, the Church will be supplied with plenty of hand sanitizer in various locations. Also remember that the Church space is sanitized each day after each Mass.

Pope Trivia

Can you name which Pope ...

- In 1978, was the first non-Italian to be named Pope in 455 years?
- Was the youngest cardinal to be elected Pope?
- Served more than 26 years - the third longest pontificate?
- Traveled more distance than all other previous popes combined?
- Canonized a Saint only nine years after his death?

The answer to each of these questions is Pope Saint John Paul II. On May 18, the Church celebrated his 100th birthday. He is a modern-day Saint, was an influential world leader, and one of the most influential Popes in history. Emeritus Pope Benedict has recommended he be named Pope John Paul II "the Great" - a title given to only two previous Popes.

Why was he so famous and so influential? You can find out more about Pope Saint John Paul II on Formed.org. Go to Formed.org > Movies > Modern Day Saints - look for several movies about John Paul II.

Thank You Bishop Rice

It is my hope that in our gratitude we send a "thank you note" to Bishop Rice for helping us to maneuver through the Coronavirus pandemic. As difficult as it has been for each of us, it has also been a struggle for Bishop Rice in discerning how to manage the 39 counties in Southern Missouri that make up our Diocese. Please send a note to Bishop Rice telling him that you are praying for him during these difficult days! His address is: Bishop Edward Rice, 601 South Jefferson Avenue, Springfield, MO 65806-3143.

Fill Us

Monday, May 25

Although Jesus' disciples think they understand him, Jesus insists that their understanding is incomplete: during his passion, they will abandon him. Only with the gift of the Holy Spirit will they find the courage to stay faithful. By contrast, Paul encounters men who have not heard of the Holy Spirit but who are well prepared to receive this gift. We need both the Spirit and the formation of our faith community to guide us forward. Pray for the Spirit to fill you and your faith community. Today's Readings: Acts 19:1-8; Psalm 68:2-3ab, 4-5acd, 6-7ab; John 16:29-33.

Imitators

Tuesday, May 26

There are similarities between Paul's journey to Jerusalem and Jesus' preparations for his passion. In John's account of the Gospel, Jesus gives a long farewell discourse in which he talks with his disciples about all that is going to happen. Paul also makes a formal farewell before facing the hardships that await him. As he says goodbye, Paul urges his listeners to imitate Jesus just as he has. Hear more of Paul's heartfelt words by reading all or part of his letter to the Philippians. Today's Readings: Acts 20:17-27; Psalm 68:10-11, 20-21; John 17:1-11a.

Set Apart

Wednesday, May 27

In the Gospel passage, the word world refers to all that opposes God. As Jesus continues his prayer to the Father, he speaks about how his followers are set apart from the world. He prays that God will further consecrate or sanctify them to continue his work of sharing the truth of God's love. Paul also was set apart for God's work, and he reminded others to remain steadfast in holiness. In what concrete ways can you set yourself apart from the world? Today's Readings: Acts 20:28-38; Psalm 68:29-30, 33-35a, 35bc-36ab; John 17:11b-19.

That All May Be One

Thursday, May 28

Religion, sadly, often divides people instead of uniting them. The Pharisees and Sadducees disagreed on whether there was any kind of afterlife. Disagreements about beliefs and practices persist among Christians today. Such division compels us to bow our heads and echo Jesus' prayer for unity. Today's Readings: Acts 22:30; 23:6-11; Psalm 16:1-2a and 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11; John 17:20-26.

In the Hands of Others

Friday, May 29

In Luke's Gospel account, Jesus tells his disciples that they will be handed over to kings and governors (21:12-13). In the passage from Acts, Paul is in the hands of the local governor who consults on his case with the king. In today's Gospel passage, Jesus tells Peter that one day Peter will be arrested and crucified. Centuries later, Christians still come into conflict with those in authority. Pray for those who are attacked or imprisoned because of their faith. Today's Readings: Acts 25:13b-21; Psalm 103:1-2, 11-12, 19-20ab; John 21:15-19.

The Work Continues

Saturday, May 30

As we near the end of our Easter season, we hear the conclusions to the Acts of the Apostles and the Gospel according to John. Paul has arrived at Rome, in fulfillment of Jesus' prophecy that his followers would be his witnesses throughout the world. Today Christian missionaries have crossed oceans to enter new regions and share the story of salvation. John's Gospel notes that Jesus said and did far more than any book could contain. The Jesus who has risen, ascended to his Father, and filled us with his Spirit continues his mission through us. May the good work we do in Jesus' name fill more volumes than could ever be written. Today's Readings: Acts 28:16-20, 30-31; Psalm 11:4, 5 and 7; John 21:20-25.

Sunday, May 24, 2020

The Glory of God

Today's Readings: Acts 1:1-11; Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9; Ephesians 1:17-23; Matthew 28:16-20. In both Jewish and Gentile writings revered people were sometimes shown being taken up into heaven. Their ascension was a metaphor for divine approval. Luke draws on this imagery to show not only that God approves of Jesus but that Jesus shares God's power. Having ascended, Jesus is spiritually and sacramentally present at all times and in all places.

In Acts, the disciples are uncertain what to do once Jesus has ascended. Two men dressed in white must explain the significance of the event, just as in Luke's Gospel two men in white explained the significance of the empty tomb. In Matthew's account of the Gospel, the disciples are also uncertain about all that is happening. They worship the Risen Lord, but "they doubted." Perhaps they struggled to believe that Jesus really would remain with them.

When we feel hesitant and doubtful, we are reassured by those first followers of Jesus, who also struggled yet went forth to share the Gospel. They chose to trust their Lord. They embraced the Spirit he sent them and rejoiced in their deepening knowledge of God and God's love for the world. By remaining one with Christ, who has authority over all, they became part of God's new creation and now share in the Father's glory. It is now our turn, as fellow members of Christ's Body, the Church, to show others that Christ remains in the world and to invite them to be part of his reign.
