Come Upon Us

Lord of Life, the world awaits your liberating Spirit.

Come, mighty wind, breathe new life into us.

Come, Spirit of Truth, reveal the evil that lingers in our midst.

Come, Wisdom of God, teach us the way of righteousness.

Come, Fire of Love, impassion us to act justly in all we do.

Come, Helper and Guide, draw us together in fellowship and peace.

Come, O Sanctifier, and make us holy.

Keep us forever united with our loving and creating God, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

• Prayer Requests •

Please remember Anna Dienstbach, Judy Frentzel, the sick, the hospitalized, the homebound, and those who care for them. Pray also for those suffering from Covid-19, for all health-care workers and for those seeking a vaccine to the Coronavirus.

In the second reading today, St. Paul reminds the Corinthians, "There are different gifts, but the same Spirit; there are different ministries, but the same Lord." How am I using my gifts for the common good?

Act of Spiritual Communion

The "Act of Spiritual Communion" is a prayer for anyone who desires to receive the Eucharist but is unable.

"My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

Cancellations

Camp Re-NEW-All - After much prayer, discussion, and discernment, it is with deeply saddened hearts that the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau has made a decision to cancel Camp Re-NEW-All for the summer of 2020. It was a very difficult decision to make. However, as the diocesan leaders and camp directors reviewed the guidelines being distributed by the Center for Disease Control and other reputable sources, it was determined that Camp Re-NEW-All is not equipped or adequately staffed to make all necessary changes to comply with the recommended new safety and health protocols due to the spread of Covid-19. The leaders/directors strive to provide a safe camp experience for all and feel they are not able to do that this year. Even if camp could make the necessary changes, it would greatly change the atmosphere and experience of camp itself to have so many restrictions in place.

Some who have already cancelled have donated their registration fee to camp. However, refunds will be issued to everyone who requests one. Please contact Katie Newton at knewton@dioscg.org to request a refund.

Totus Tuus - After much consideration and prayer, it has been decided to cancel the Totus Tuus Program for this summer here at St. Vincent. Rescheduling dates and safety concerns were major points considered. Refunds will be available to those who have registered. Hopefully, Totus Tuus can be held during the summer of 2021.

Welcome to St. Vincent de Paul

Newman Center Mass

During the construction of the new St. John Henry Newman Center, the 6:00 p.m. Sunday Mass will be celebrated at St. Mary Cathedral.

Welcome Back!

Once again St. Vincent de Paul is open for the celebration of Mass. The desire to return to Mass, participate in prayer and receive the Eucharist is incredibly strong. Please know of the following points ...

Attendance will be limited. The Church building is marked for “social distancing.” Using the guidelines from the Cape County Health Department, the Church space is limited to 30% of the normal seating capacity. This means that our Church space will seat approximately 150-200 people. When a Mass is filled to its capacity, people will be encouraged to attend the next Mass. For this reason, three additional Masses have been added on the weekend, and will be celebrated in the DePaul Center Gym. It is estimated that the DePaul Center Gym will hold approximately 300 people using the “social distancing” directives.

Social Distancing will be practiced. Pews have been roped off! Families will be asked to keep six feet of separation from other families. Bring your own mask to Church and be prepared to wear the mask during Mass to guard against the spread of germs. If you are showing any symptoms of sickness, please stay home.

If you come as a family, please sit together as a family group. You should be seated at least six feet from other families. Remember, there are to be NO hugs or handshakes!

Liturgical changes will be in place. Extra precautions are being taken including the suspension of the distribution of the Precious Blood and receiving Holy Communion only on the hand. Those desiring to receive Holy Communion on the tongue should wait until the very end of the Communion procession. (If a parishioner is unable to consume a low-gluten host and is only able to consume the Precious Blood, please call the Parish Office the Friday before the weekend stating which Mass you will attend. A separate chalice will be prepared and distributed after the hosts have been distributed.)

The Sign of Peace is suspended.

Holy Communion will take place at the very end of Mass so that the movement of the people in the Church can be limited to just one time. People can receive Holy Communion and then return to their pews for private prayer or they may leave for home.

Please remember that people who wear masks will have to remove the masks when they approach the Priest/Deacon/Eucharistic Minister.

Note: The Communion procession should follow six foot spacing between Communicants. People are encouraged to receive Holy Communion in their hands and should not be wearing gloves.

A general dispensation from the Sunday obligation will remain. Remember, if you feel ill, or if you do not feel comfortable with coming to Church at this time, you are invited to join in the many Masses offered online. Also remember that dispensation from attending Sunday Mass is still granted until the end of June. If you or your family feel more comfortable at home because of the Coronavirus threat, make plans to continue to keep the Sabbath holy by participating in livestream and recorded Masses. Mass will be recorded on Saturday at the 5:00 p.m. Mass and it will be posted immediately to the YouTube and Parish website. The Sunday 9:00 a.m. Mass will not be livestreamed as it has been.

There still will be a risk for anyone who attends a public Mass. Even with best health practices and strict social distancing, anyone who enters a public space should recognize there is a risk of contracting the Coronavirus. Cleaning will continue but no one should expect that they will be any safer from germs than other public spaces. To prevent risks, the Church will be supplied with plenty of hand sanitizer in various locations. Also the Church space is sanitized each day after each Mass.

Mary, Mother of the Church

Monday, June 1

In the Gospel passage, Jesus ensures that his mother will be taken care of after his death. However, this passage also has a symbolic meaning. Throughout the Gospel, the Beloved Disciple has faithfully told us all that happened to Jesus so that we will believe in and worship Jesus as God's Son. Mary represents the Church, the community of believers who are continually strengthened by the witness of this disciple. As we strive to bear Christ in our world, we continue to draw strength and gain wisdom from the faithful witness of others. Pray the Rosary this week, and ask God to help you be a more faithful witness to God's love. Today's Readings: Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34.

The Most Holy Trinity

Sunday, June 7

Because the first Christians worshipped the Risen Christ as Lord, it soon became necessary to explain how Jesus and God the Father, as well as the Holy Spirit, were one God and not three different gods. There were intense discussions about the nature of God in the fourth and fifth centuries. The fruit of this process is the Nicene Creed, particularly the use of the title "Father."

The term father implies relationship. If God is a father, then there must be a child. In God's case, the child is a Son, Jesus. The relationship does not end there; it flows outward, bringing the world into existence and giving life to countless creatures. The Holy Spirit draws the world toward God so that we may become part of the divine relationship, part of God's eternal love. Today's Readings: Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9; Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56; 2 Corinthians 13:11-13; John 3:16-18.

The Body and Blood of Christ

Sunday, June 14

When Jesus' followers gathered after his death and Resurrection to break bread and drink from the cup, they were doing something dangerous. Their Lord had been executed, and by gathering in his name they risked the same fate. They gathered nonetheless. By communing with the Risen Christ, they declared themselves part of his body and showed their willingness to suffer for the sake of the Gospel.

When we come forward during Communion, we are doing the same thing. By partaking of the consecrated bread and wine, we become part of Christ's Body. We commit ourselves to acting as Christ in the world, even to the point of suffering, maybe even shedding our blood, so that others will know of Christ's love for them. Today's Readings: Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a; Psalm 147:12-13, 14-15, 19-20; 1 Corinthians 10:16-17; John 6:51-58.

The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

Friday, June 19

In the First Reading, Moses reminds the Israelites that God bound himself to his people in a covenant, and they, in turn, must remain bound to God and God alone. St. John writes similarly in our Second Reading, urging us to remain bound to God by loving each other as God loves us, for God is love itself. Because we associate the human heart with love, it became natural to revere the heart of Jesus as the more particular embodiment of the Father's love.

In today's Gospel passage, Jesus tells us to yoke or bind ourselves to him. He invites us to live in a way that is not burdensome because it is the way of love and because he accompanies us every step of this way. We can trust him because we know that he has already bound himself to us in love. Today's Readings: Deuteronomy 7:6-11; Psalm 103:1-2, 3-4, 6-7, 8, 10; 1 John 4:7-16; Matthew 11:25-30.

Sunday, May 31, 2020

Today's Apostles

Today's Readings: Acts 2:1-11; Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34; 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13; John 20:19-23. For the past seven weeks, we have heard what the Apostles did after Jesus poured his Spirit out upon them. We have heard compelling speeches and listened to stories of healing and exorcism. We have witnessed the conversion of Jews, Samaritans, and Gentiles. We have seen Paul, a fierce opponent of Jesus' followers, become an eloquent and passionate preacher of the Gospel. We have also heard stories of ridicule, expulsion, imprisonment, and martyrdom, yet in those moments, the Apostles rejoiced that they could glorify God by dying and rising with Jesus.

As our Easter season comes to an end and we conclude our reading of the Acts of the Apostles, we might think such marvelous stories belong to the past. We might think we could never be such loving, courageous witnesses, we could never speak and act like those Apostles did. We would be wrong to think this. St. Paul tells us, "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit."

Pentecost marked the beginning of the apostolic era, the era of the Church. We are still in that era. People still need to hear the story of salvation, still need healing, still need evil expelled from their midst. God pours his Spirit out upon us to transform and empower us, and then he sends us forth. We each have something to contribute to the story of salvation, for we are the apostles of this age.
