The Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau is celebrating the feast of its secondary patroness, St. Rose Philippine Duchesne. Video segments describing St. Rose Philippine Duchesne's life and work are being presented by Bishop Rice and others. To see "A Minute with St. Rose Philippine Duchesne," go to www.diosecg.org.

St. Rose Philippine Duchesne

In 1918 the Missouri Historical Society named Sister Rose Philippine Duchesne the greatest of the state's pioneer women. Although her life was a series of extraordinary adventures, those who met her were most struck by her spirit of quiet reflection.

Philippine (as she was known) was born in Grenoble in France. She grew up during the turbulent times prior to the French Revolution. Her father, a lawyer, was also an outspoken politician who believed that the monarchy should be overthrown. Her mother was a person of faith in a time when that was not fashionable. Philippine, who was strongly influenced by her, joined a convent. Shortly afterward, though, the Revolution began, and all convents and monasteries were disbanded. Philippine spent the next ten years teaching neglected children and caring for the sick.

When the Reign of Terror ended and a spirit of greater religious tolerance emerged, she and four other nuns from her convent joined a new religious order, the Society of the Sacred Heart. Thus she came to know Mother Madeleine Sophie Barat, who would herself become canonized.

Philippine longed to work with Native Americans. At the age of 49 she was sent to the United States as superior of a small group of sisters. They had been invited to assist the archbishop of St. Louis with religious instruction. In the village of St. Charles, Missouri, she founded a convent in a small log cabin and began a school for the daughters of pioneer settlers. During the next few years, she also founded schools in Mississippi and Louisiana. She and her sisters suffered many hardships, from forest fires and epidemics to hunger. In her work with settlers, she fought prejudice against African Americans.

In 1840, at the age of 71, she accompanied a group of sisters opening a mission for Potawatomi Indians at what is now Sugar Creek, Missouri. At last her vision of serving among Native Americans had been realized.

Too frail to teach, she prayed while the other sisters worked with the children. The Potawatomi described her as "the woman who prays always." After only a year at the mission, she became ill. At the age of 83 she died at St. Charles, where she is buried. Rose Philippine Duchesne was canonized in 1988. She is remembered each year on November 18.

• Prayer Requests •

Please remember the sick, the hospitalized, the homebound, and those who care for them. Pray also for those suffering from COVID-19 and for all healthcare workers.

Act of Spiritual Communion

The "Act of Spiritual Communion" is a prayer for anyone who desires to receive the Eucharist but is unable.

"My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

Good stewards are like the industrious and reliable servants in today's Gospel, prudently using and multiplying the gifts entrusted to them by God.

Rosary Prayer Group

The Holy Rosary will be prayed at 1:30 p.m. this Sunday, November 15, inside Old St. Vincent Chapel of Ease (downtown Cape).

Maxine's, St. Vincent's clothing ministry, is gradually getting back to pre-Covid days. In October, clothing was given to 158 people and many donations have come in. There are still a few items that are needed: men's shoes (size 10 and up), belts, XL winter coats, fleece hoodies, sweatpants, and also girls' size 7/8 winter tops. If you can donate any of these items, they can be brought to Maxine's (basement of old convent) any Thursday, 9:00 - 11:00 a.m., or Saturday, 9:00 - 12:00 noon. Please do not bring summer clothing. Maxine's will be closed all of Thanksgiving week. Saturday volunteers are still needed! Thanks!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Our Response to the Corona Virus

Attendance is limited in the Church. The Church is marked for “social distancing”. When the Church space is filled, people will be encouraged to go to the upper meeting room where Mass can be seen and heard. In addition, Holy Communion is taken to the upper meeting room. Please note that entering any part of the Church requires a face mask!

Social Distancing needs to be practiced. Families still need to keep six feet of separation from other families. If you are showing any symptoms of sickness, please stay home. Remember, during this time, there are to be NO hugs or handshakes!

A general dispensation from the Sunday obligation remains. If you or your family feel more comfortable to stay at home because of the Coronavirus threat, make plans to continue to keep the Sabbath holy by participating in livestream and pre-recorded Masses. Our parish Mass is recorded on Saturday at 5:00 p.m. and posted immediately to our YouTube and Parish website.

Please remember! There still will be a risk for anyone who attends a public Mass. Even with best health practices and strictest social distancing, anyone who enters a public space should recognize there is a risk of contracting the Coronavirus. Cleaning will continue but no one should expect that they will be any safer from germs than other public spaces. To prevent risks the Church will be supplied with plenty of hand sanitizer in various locations. Also, remember that the Church space is sanitized each day after each Mass

Finally, let's strive for progress and not perfection. There will no doubt be challenges and frustrations. Things may not go according to plan. But we believe following these guidelines is a reasonable sacrifice. If we all work together, we can ease back into our celebration of the Holy Eucharist and continue to incrementally return to normal. However, if we look for ways to get around the regulations, we will likely create situations that force us to take steps backward. In the long run, please remember that these guidelines have been created for everyone's safety! Finally, let us continue to pray for all those who have lost loved ones to the Coronavirus, for those struggling with the disease now, and all those living in fear of the unknown. May God be with all of us!

Peace,
Father Rick L. Jones
Pastor

Survey for Lay Ecclesial Ministers

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops would like to learn more about the realities facing lay ecclesial ministers across the country.

To achieve that, the USCCB has created a survey that any and all lay leaders are invited to fill out to get a snapshot of the current landscape of lay ecclesial ministry in the Church in the U.S. today; to hear how the pandemic has affected them; to understand the impact of the bishops' document on lay ecclesial ministry, Co-Workers in the Vineyard of the Lord; and to ask how the USCCB can support and advocate for lay ecclesial ministers throughout the United States, most especially at this uncertain time.

The deadline for filling out the survey is December 15, 2020. To take the survey, go to the St. Vincent Parish website (www.svcapc.com) and find the direct link to the survey.

Welcome to St. Vincent de Paul

First Reading

Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax
and works with loving hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor,
and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Responsorial Psalm

Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons,
brothers and sisters,
you have no need for anything to be written to you.
For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night.
When people are saying,
“Peace and security,”
then sudden disaster comes upon them,
like labor pains
upon a pregnant woman,
and they will not escape.
But you, brothers and sisters,
are not in darkness,
for that day to overtake you like a thief.
For all of you are children of the light and children of the day.
We are not of the night or of darkness.
Therefore, let us not sleep
as the rest do,
but let us stay alert and sober.

Verse 2*Verse 3*♢ CodaGospel ReadingMatthew 25:14-30

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one — to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

"After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism
for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Communion

O Taste, Taste and See

Refrain

Verses

1. I will sing God's praises all the days that I shall live.
My soul will glory in my God, the lowly will hear and be glad.
O glorify God's name with me, together let us rejoice.
2. For God has heard my anguished cries, and delivered me from all my foes.
O look to God that you might shine, your faces be radiant with joy.
3. When the poor cry out, God hears and saves them, rescues them from their distress.
God's angel watches near to those who look to their God to save them.
4. O taste and see that God is good, how happy the ones who find refuge.
The mighty shall grow weak and hungry, those who seek God lack nothing.
5. Come, my children, hear me, I will teach you the fear of God.
Come, all of you who thirst for life and seek joy in all of your days.
6. For God is close to the brokenhearted, near to those crushed in spirit.
The hand of God redeems your life, a refuge for all those who seek.
