Make Us a Gift

Father, through the gift of your Son,
you have continued the work begun at creation,
drawing all you have made to yourself, redeeming the world,
bringing all into the light of your love through your own self gift.
Help us to enter into the mysteries of these holy days.
Give us the strength to follow where the Shepherd leads,
embracing our cross, relinquishing all that is not love,
offering all we have received back to you,
that we might participate in the world's re-creation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Seeing Ourselves in the Story

Today's readings: Isaiah 50:4-7; Psalm 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24; Philippians 2:6-11; Mark 14:1-15:47. As Holy Week begins, we herald Jesus as he triumphantly enters Jerusalem. We cry, "Hosanna!" The excitement of his coming reaches us across time and space. Jesus is the one for whom Israel has been waiting. He will bring about the longed-for kingdom of justice and peace.

From jubilant welcome, the mood shifts quickly, and before long the crowd shouts again, this time not "Hosanna," but "Crucify him!"

One way that we can reflect upon the events of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection is to imagine ourselves in the story. If you were part of the crowd, what might have made you excited about Jesus as he entered? What might you have felt as public opinion changed, and people became fearful of him? Are you one of the disciples? How do you feel in the garden as Jesus prays? What is it like when he is arrested? Another perspective you might take is that of the women. They had come with Jesus to Jerusalem and were witnesses to all that had happened. What would it be like to see the passion through their eyes?

Entering into Holy Week, make space for silence, prayer, and reflection. Prepare yourself to celebrate the greatest of all mysteries, the moment that redeemed all of history: the resurrection.

• Prayer Requests •

Please remember Fred Meystedt, Irene Klueppel, the sick, the hospitalized, the homebound, and those who care for them. Pray also for those suffering from COVID-19 and for all healthcare workers.

Good stewards strive to conform their lives to that of Christ — emptying themselves of all pride and putting themselves at the service of others.

Chrism Mass

Cathedral of St. Mary of the Annunciation

Unfortunately, due to Covid restrictions, this year's Chrism Mass is open only to the clergy of the Diocese. The Mass will be live-streamed for parishioners to watch and pray on Monday, March 29, at 7:00 p.m. To watch, go to www.dioscg.org and click on the Facebook page for the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau.

Confessions During Holy Week

Hopefully everyone has taken advantage of the many opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation during the season of Lent. If you have not, there are still some chances. Priests will be available for confessions on:

- Palm Sunday, March 28, "on the hour" from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m.
- "Spy Wednesday," March 31, "on the hour" from 12:00 - 8:00 p.m.

(These are the last opportunities for confessions during Holy Week. During the Sacred Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday, there will be no confessions.)

Livestreamed Masses

The Mass celebrated on Holy Thursday at 7:30 p.m., the Passion of the Lord on Good Friday at 7:30 p.m., and the Mass celebrated on Easter Sunday at 8:00 a.m. will be livestreamed and will be available to view on the St. Vincent de Paul Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/svcape/>). The videos will also be available to view after Masses on the parish website (www.svcape.com).

Good Friday Collection

On Good Friday, a collection will be taken for the Holy Land. Your financial contribution helps to support the struggling Christian community and to protect its holiest places. An envelope for the Holy Land collection is available in your monthly packet. Please be generous.

The "Act of Spiritual Communion" is a prayer for anyone who desires to receive the Eucharist but is unable.

"My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

Please remember that Good Friday is a day of fast and abstinence. Those 14 years and older who are physically able are required to abstain from meat. Fasting is required for those ages 18 through 59. The Church defines fasting as one meal a day, and two smaller meals which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal, as well as no eating between meals.

First Friday Adoration Moved to Second Friday

Because the first Friday of April is on Good Friday this year, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will be moved to the second Friday of April! Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will begin after the 6:30 a.m. Mass on Friday, April 9. Adoration continues all day and closes with Benediction at 5:15 p.m. Please come and pray for good vocations to the priesthood and religious life from St. Vincent de Paul Parish.

IS CATHERINE'S CUPBOARD ON YOUR GROCERY LIST?

May They Rest in Peace

Sympathy is extended to the families of:

David Enderle, a member of the St. Vincent Parish family;

Don Crowe, grandfather of Nathan McGuire;

Dolly Mae Welker, mother of Brad Welker; and Marco Dominguez, a member of the St. Vincent Parish family.

*May they and all the souls of the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.*

Ideas for the Home

Holy Thursday - If you cannot attend the celebration of the Lord's Last Supper at Church on Holy Thursday, why not try to do something in your own home-church on that evening.

- You could have a special meal on Thursday and for your Meal Blessing Prayer, read one of the accounts from Scripture about the Last Supper (Luke 22:1-22; Mark 14:12-26, Matthew 26:17-30 or 1 Corinthians 11:23-26).
- Holy Thursday's emphasis on the "Washing of Feet" also gave rise to the ancient tradition of "Spring Cleaning"...getting the home ready for the great Feast of Easter. You can tell children about this tradition and ask to them to clean their rooms in order to observe Holy Thursday and get ready for Easter. You might read John 13:1-2.
- After having your special Holy Thursday Meal, maybe you could come to Church for a little quiet prayer in Adoration with the Lord in the "Garden of Gethsemane" where the Altar of Repose is kept. If this is not possible, why not light some candles and say some special prayers before bedtime.

Good Friday - Fast and abstain on this day! This is required by the Catholic Church if you are healthy and 18 years or older. You can also encourage your kids to skip snacks on this sacred day.

- Keep fun activities to a minimum. For example, do not have an Easter party on Good Friday.
- Good Friday is the first day of the Divine Mercy Novena, so start it today.
- The most sacred hours during Good Friday are from 12:00 noon to 3:00 p.m. because this is when Jesus was on the cross. These hours are sometimes known as the three hours of agony. During this time, try to have a special silence in your home and encourage your children to do the same (to the best of their ability). Turn off the phones, television, and other screen devices. Maybe as a family you could pray the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary, read from the Bible about the Crucifixion, or maybe have your children quietly draw or color religious pictures.

Holy Saturday

- Make Easter Story Cookies (AKA: Resurrection Cookies). This is a fun way to prepare for Easter with your kids! It is a beloved tradition in many Catholic homes on Holy Saturday. Each ingredient for the cookies has a symbolism to the Resurrection story, and the process of making the cookies represents the Resurrection and has coordinating Scripture! This post has full directions and a picture tutorial for making the cookies. Go to www.allrecipes.com/recipe/11317/easter-story-cookies/ and find out more of this tradition.

The parish office will be closed on Good Friday, April 2, and Easter Monday, April 5.

A Lenten Opportunity

Beatitude Boxes and Bags

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.

MATTHEW 5:6

During the season of Lent, the parishioners of St. Vincent are invited to collect food and paper items for distribution to the needy. Beatitude Boxes will be filled with specific food items and Beatitude Bags will be filled with specific paper products. Tags are posted on the bulletin board in the gathering area. Some tags will list all items in the box (approximate cost $30-$35) and all items in the bag (approximate cost $12-$15). Other tags list some of the items in the box or bag. You are invited to take one or more tags and purchase the requested items. Return the items to the designated area in the gathering area no later than April 2. Boxes and bags will then be filled and given to the needy in the local community.

Easter is a week away and the Elect and Candidates are making final preparations to enter the Catholic Church.

Their names and pictures are on a poster board in the gathering area. Please consider writing a note of congratulations to each and dropping it in the box by the poster prior to the Easter Vigil Mass. Also, as you see them at church, personally introduce yourself and welcome them into our parish community.

First Communion Gifts

Our Sunday Visitor (OSV) bookstore has several excellent books that would make great gifts for children who are making their First Communion. Go to <https://osvbookstore.com> and search these titles:

My First Communion Journal is full of fun ways Catholic children can prepare for, remember, and live out their First Holy Communion. The Journal features colorful design, prayers, devotions, special activities, and quotes from the saints and Scriptures. My First Communion Journal can be used both before and after the child's First Communion day.

Catholic Encyclopedia for Children - This beautifully illustrated book presented by topic, and in storybook fashion, features:

- The great people and events of the Bible
- The life and message of Jesus
- The history of the early Church
- Lives of the saints
- Fundamental Catholic beliefs and practices such as corporal and spiritual works of mercy, etc.

Divine Mercy Sunday

April 11, 2021

"I want the Image (which Jesus instructed Saint Faustina to have painted as she saw him) to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it.

By means of this Image I shall be granting many graces to souls." (Saint Faustina's Diary 341)

*First ReadingIsaiah 50:4-7

The Lord GOD has given me
 a well-trained tongue,
 that I might know how to speak to the weary
 a word that will rouse them.
 Morning after morning
 he opens my ear that I may hear;
 and I have not rebelled,
 have not turned back.
 I gave my back to those who beat me,
 my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
 my face I did not shield
 from buffets and spitting.

The Lord GOD is my help,
 therefore I am not disgraced;
 I have set my face like flint,
 knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

Responsorial Psalm

O God, my God,
 why have you abandoned me?

*Second ReadingPhilippians 2:6-11

Christ Jesus,
 though he was in the form of God,
 did not regard equality with God
 something to be grasped.
 Rather, he emptied himself,
 taking the form of a slave,
 coming in human likeness;
 and found human in appearance,
 he humbled himself,
 becoming obedient
 to the point of death,
 even death on a cross.
 Because of this,
 God greatly exalted him
 and bestowed on him the name
 which is above every name,
 that at the name of Jesus
 every knee should bend,
 of those in heaven and on earth
 and under the earth,
 and every tongue confess
 that Jesus Christ is Lord,
 to the glory of God the Father.

*GospelMark 14:1-15:47

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand
of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from
the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken
through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic
and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism
for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Were You There?

1. Were you there when they cru - ci - fied my Lord?
 2. Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?
 3. Were you there when they pierced him in the side?
 4. Were you there when the sun re - fused to shine?
 5. Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?
 6. Were you there when they rolled the stone a - way?

Were you there when they cru - ci - fied my Lord?
 Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?
 Were you there when they pierced him in the side?
 Were you there when the sun re - fused to shine?
 Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?
 Were you there when they rolled the stone a - way?

Prayer to St. Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph,
 do we come in our tribulation,
 and having implored the help
 of your most holy Spouse,
 we confidently invoke
 your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced
 the Child Jesus,
 we humbly beg you graciously
 to regard the inheritance
 which Jesus Christ
 has purchased by his Blood,
 and with your power and strength
 to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian
 of the Holy Family,
 defend the chosen children
 of Jesus Christ;
 O most loving father,
 ward off from us
 every contagion of error
 and corrupting influence;
 O our most mighty protector,
 be kind to us and from heaven
 assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued
 the Child Jesus from deadly peril,
 so now protect God's Holy Church
 from the snares of the enemy
 and from all adversity;
 shield, too, each one of us
 by your constant protection, so that, supported by
 your example and your aid,
 we may be able to live piously,
 to die in holiness,
 and to obtain eternal happiness
 in heaven.

Amen.
