A Prayer for Mothers

God our Creator, we pray:
for new mothers, coming to terms with new responsibilities;
for expectant mothers, wondering and waiting;
for those who are tired, stressed or depressed;
for those who struggle to balance the tasks of work and family;
for those who are unable to feed their children due to poverty;
for those whose children have physical, mental or emotional disabilities;
for those who raise children on their own;
for those who have lost a child;
for those who care for the children of others;
for those whose children have left home;
and for those whose desire to be a mother has not been fulfilled.
Bless all mothers, that their love may be deep and tender,
and that they may lead their children to know and do what is good,
living not for themselves alone, but for God and for others. Amen.

Happy Mother's Day!!!

whom you meet without helping.*

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Paul and Barnabas encountered both violent rejection and joyful acceptance of the message that they preached. We, too, may meet with mixed reactions when we use our gifts in the service of God. But, the Gospel assures us, the reward for those who follow faithfully is eternal life.

Diocesan Development Fund

The Diocesan Development Fund Campaign (DDF) is the annual campaign for the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau. The funds raised through this annual campaign advance the diocese's mission through a host of ministries that assist families, parishes, and the diocese as a whole. For online donations to DDF, simply go to www.dioscg.org and follow the prompts. Transactions are totally secure.

This year St. Vincent's parish goal is $280,000 with a participation goal of 600 households. To date St. Vincent parishioners have given $96,040 (34.3%) toward the goal. 172 families (28.7% of donor goal) have responded so far with a pledge of prayer and money. Thank you!

Journeying Through Easter

The Voice of the Shepherd

Monday, May 9

Think of the people you love and how it feels when you hear one of them say your name. Often, the voice of a loved one is soothing. Jesus knows and calls us by name; if we are listening, comfort and security will be found even while facing challenges. Today, allow yourself a few moments of silence to hear your name being called by the Good Shepherd, and know the gift of peace. Consider meditating on the words of Sunday's responsorial psalm: we are his people, the sheep of his flock. Today's readings: Acts 11:1-18; Psalm 42:2-3; 43:3-4; John 10:1-10.

A Hand to Hold

Tuesday, May 10

Jesus lets his doubters know that his followers, his sheep, are secure with him. "No one can take them out of my hand," he says, "and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one." No matter the situation or adversary, Christians can rest assured that God cares for them. Today's readings: Acts 11:19-26; Psalm 87:1b-3, 4-5, 6-7; John 10:22-30.

Light in Darkness

Wednesday, May 11

"I came into the world as light, so that everyone who believes in me might not remain in darkness," Jesus states in today's Gospel. Unable to see in the dark, people often become afraid. The darkness we find ourselves in can be as literal as when the electricity is out during a storm, or figurative such as when the future seems uncertain. When you feel enveloped by darkness, remember to look for Jesus to light your path. Today's readings: Acts 12:24-13:5a; Psalm 67:2-3, 5, 6 and 8; John 12:44-50.

God is Good

Thursday, May 12

"For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord," we sing in today's responsorial psalm. What are the blessings in your life? Love, faith, family, friendship, a place to call home, our health, a job are some of the blessings that might come to mind. Many of these we take for granted. Grace, mercy, and faithfulness are God's promise to us. Even a moment of gratitude opens us to the fullness of this promise. Today's readings: Acts 13:13-25; Psalm 89:2-3, 21-22, 25 and 27; John 13:16-20.

Have Faith

Friday, May 13

Just as Jesus tells the disciples, he also tells us, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me." How often we allow our hearts to be troubled. It seems as though worry and fear can become a way of life. Spend time with the Gospel, placing yourself in Jesus' hands as you contemplate that he is "the way the truth and the life." Today's readings: Acts 13:26-33; Psalm 2:6-7, 8-9, 10-11ab; John 14:1-6.

Faithful and Kind

Saturday, May 14

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks his followers to come to him in prayer. "Whatever you ask in my name, I will do so that the Father may be glorified in the Son," he says. Not only does Jesus desire to answer his followers' petitions, but he seeks to draw them to the Father. As we come to know Jesus, we come to know the Father. Spend time in a conversation with God and tell him your deepest concerns. Allow for quiet time to listen to God in your heart. Today's readings: Acts 1:15-17, 20-26; Psalm 113:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8; John 15:9-17.

Sunday, May 8

Accompanying One Another

Today's readings: Acts 13:14, 43-52; Psalm 100:1-2, 3, 5; Revelation 7:9, 14b-17; John 10:27-30.

Why does it seem that differences in culture, religion, or preferences frighten people? This appears to be the situation in the first reading today. The Jews grew jealous when Paul and Barnabas included the Gentiles in a Sabbath gathering. One group saw themselves as more deserving than the other and grew angry and violent. They wanted to keep the faith contained among those like themselves.

In the Gospel, Jesus identifies his sheep as those who "hear my voice" and "follow me." Jesus gives them "eternal life." Jesus' sheep only need to hear his voice and follow him. It seems so simple, yet often people complicate Christianity as they judge by appearances. Fear can lead to anger and ultimately to excluding people who have many gifts and talents to offer our communities.

When fearful of others, it is essential to pray for the grace to see people as God sees them, to recognize the presence of God within those who come to us seeking to join our journey of faith. Our prayer should lead us to treat each person with dignity and respect. May we strive to imitate the reverence for others that is apparent in Pope Francis' statement: "The Church will have to initiate everyone — priests, religious and laity — into this 'art of accompaniment' which teaches us to remove our sandals before the sacred ground of the other" (The Joy of the Gospel, 169).
