The One Thing - Your Story Matters

One of the most common resolutions among Christians is to “pray more.” This desire is beautiful, but amidst a very busy daily life filled with work, family, social and other engagements, it can be extremely difficult to put this desire into actual practice. Yet the fact remains: prayer is vitally important for the sake of our own hearts and sanity.

In the Gospel (Luke 10:42), Jesus told Martha that only one thing is needed above all else ... and that was to spend time listening attentively to Him. How can that realistically be done today? Come to Church on Tuesday, February 18, at 6:30 p.m. for a night of inspiration, prayer, discussion, and practical tips on how to put God first. The presenter and guide will be Mari Pablo from Evangelical Catholic. For more information, contact Julie Schuchardt at 573-450-7727.

Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man.

Thank You

Dear St. Vincent de Paul Parish,

Thank you so much for the thoughtful and beautiful spiritual bouquets! I was overwhelmed with gratitude when I was reading them. It is such a blessing to know that I am prayed for by a Church family that has supported me from my Baptism, through my Reconciliation, First Communion, Confirmation, and now as I pursue the vocation Jesus has called me to! Please know that everyone who sits in these church pews is in my prayers (as well as those who sit in the choir and in the sanctuary, of course! ☺) May God bless you all abundantly!
